WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Depart ment, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washngton, D. C. Nov'r. 21, 1876-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle States rising or stationary barometer, northerly winds, cloudy and clearing we ther, with slight changes in temperature.

ARRESTED FOR FRAUD .- A telegram was received at police healquarters yesterday evening from Culpeper Court-house directing the arrest of P. B. Farish, as a fugitive from jusile. Officers James Smith and Phillips at once proceeded to the Mansion House, where Farish was found, and arrested him. On the regular evening passenger train came Mr. G. S. P. Triplett, former'y of this city, but now residing in Rappahannock county, who had ordered the arrest, and who immediately went before Justic: Nalls and swore out a warrant charging Faris: with having unlawfully disposed of his wheat crop, on which be (Triplett) had a lies for fertilizers fu nished; and, further, with being about to leave the State. Mr. Priplett had an interview with Farish at the station house, and upon payment of a portion of the amount due, and an affidavit as to how and where the grain had been disposed of, which he thinks will secure him the rest of his money, agreed to compromise the matter and allow Farish to proceed. It seems that the prisoner had sold his grain to a merchant after having given a tien on it to Mr. Triplett, which lien was recorded in the Clerk's office according to law, and was on his way to Missouri, where he proposed to settle with his family. The law, under which he was arrested, is sec. 3, chap 59, acrs of 1874, which reads : 3. If any person shall obtain from another an advance of money, merchandise or other thirgs, upon a promise, in writing, that he will sens or deliver to such other person his orop or other property, and shall, fraudulently, fail or refuse to perform such promise, he shall be demet guilty of the larceny of such money, merchandise or other thing.

CABBAGE THIEF ARRESTED .- For some time past, Mr. Francis S. Martin of Prince George's County, Md., has been missing cabbage from his patch, and being finally annoved beyond endurance, he determined to set a trap for the thief. Accordingly he forced a small nail into the centre of each cabbage, having the head so carefully concealed as to defy detection except by some one previously posted as to its location. Last night, for the third or fouth time, his patch was again robbed, and fourteen cabbages taken. On coming to the market here this morning, he found several cabbages, bearing the necessary mark of identification in them, in the possession of a colored woman named Nancy Semmes, whom he had arrested at once .-Upon hearing the evidence in the case the Mayor decided to commit her to jail, to await the requisition of the Maryland Au-

Young TRAMPS. - I'wo boys giving their names as Fred Stein and Thomas Henly were arrested at the Virginia Midland depot, this morning, and committed to the station house as vagrants. They say that they belong in Savanuah, Ga., which place they left about two months since, and went by steamship to Philadelphia to visit the Centennial Exhibition. They say that they had money enough to bring them from Philadelphia to Washington on the train, from which latter place they came to this city, intending to walk home, or make their way as best they could. Both boys seem to be intelligent and preceeious beyond their years. Stein says that his lather is a Captain of Police in Savannah. The boys were questioned by the Mayor and detained until to-mgu, which we are prepared to print anything, from which we are prepared to print anything, from which we are prepared to print anything, from DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE -A grand demonstration of the democracy of Washington and the neighboring counties of Maryland and Virginia, under tie auspices of the Tilden and Hendricks Reform Club of the District of Col umbia, will take place on the evening of Wed besday, November 29. It promises to be the most imposing affair of the kind ever witnessed at the National Capital. Large numbers of persons from the anj noing counties have made their arrangements to be present already, among them a troop of borsemen from Montgemery county, Md., and precinct clubs from Warrenton, Va.

THE WEATHER. - The rain of yesterday ceased about dark and did not fall again until this morning about ten o'clock, when there was a light shower, after which the sun came ou:. The sky was speedily overcast again and the weather has been cloudy since, without any fall of rain, however. The wind has now been at the east for several days with the exception of an hour or two this morning when it suddealy shifted to the west and as suddenly shifted back agaio.

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS. - Although Christmas is over a month off, preparations for its celebration are already in progress. The cheirs of the several churches are practicing Ixtra music, and committees of ladies have been appointed to look after the preparation of the usual Christmas treats for the children and | phate of Lime and Lyon's Tooth Tablets. decorations for the churches.

CONCERT TO MORROW NIGHT.-Considerable stir is visible in musical circles over the proposed concert at Sarepta Hall to-morrow night. An octette compos d equally of noted singers from this city and Washington will render sev era fine selections during the evening. The concert will be under the direction of Prof. A. L. Roe of Washington.

FOR THE PENITENTIARY .- Sheriff Barrett, of Loudoun, came down on the W. &. O. train pint do. 30 cts. this afternoon, having in charge Lewis Randall, colored, and Fauny Lucey, colored, both convicted of grand laceny, and sentenced, the former to five years, and the latter to three years, in the penitentiary. They will be carried on to Richmond to-night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 .- Another company of U. S. soldiers arrived here to day, the last, is said, that will come just now. They came from the West, but their arrival caused searcely any commen, and the idea of mobilizing the army here is rather a subject of rid-

Nothing further from the contested Southern States, and no news is expected from Louisiana until to-night or to-morrow. The impression is still gaining ground that should Hayes be "counted in," notwithstanding the opinion of some to contrary, the enormity will be consumurated and he will be inaugurated.

There are some wno still think that so glaring a fraud as the reversal of the votes of Florida and Louisians will not be permitted, and that such a fraud would be resisted, but the cooler heads are of opinion that there will be no resistance, and that everything will pass off quietly-as it wib. There is no doubt that the stormy one, but the storm will be confined to the House most probably, and nothing of a revolutionary character be undertaken.
